got jobs?

We've got talented applicants!

Please contact me if you are interested in hiring a person who has Christian values, a strong and solid work background, and a passion to work.

I'll send your job announcement to our Available Talent members, and tell you about our qualified members interested in applying for your job.

It's a win-win.

You will find the right person without spending a penny in recruitment costs. And, you'll be helping a fellow Christian get back to work.
